Intro

DOMESTIC DESIGN & THE ART OF LIVING

Unique furniture design, finest craftsmanship and a personal approach. These are some of the characteristics of our family-run business Bulo. Starting as an office furniture company in 1963, we have since created a wide range of furniture collections that thrive in home interiors. Materials that appeal to the senses, timeless designs by internationally renowned architects and iconic furniture pieces. Plunge into our world and let our magazine inspire you. Feel free to ask us how we can help you create your living space to use and love for a long time.

We look forward to meeting you.

VVD BISTRO COLLECTION

by Vincent Van Duysen

The VVD BISTRO Collection brings accessible, comfortable, modern and light designs. Created for homes, offices and your favorite meeting spaces with colors that give it a domestic and welcoming character. The multi-functional collection has soft, ergonomic shapes that are made with durable finishes that can withstand the test of time.

About the designer

VINCENT VAN DUYSEN

Award-winning Belgian architect and designer, Vincent Van Duysen, started his career working in Milan with Cinzia Ruggeri and Aldo Cibic-Sottsass Associati in 1985. Van Duysen established his own studio in Antwerp in 1990, engaging in a wide range of projects in Belgium, Europe, the Middle East and the US - with no limits to the diversity: interiors, buildings, private houses, apartment complexes, office concepts, retail, etc. Van Duysen is also renowned for the design of smaller objects and furniture he developed for international design houses.

SL 58 & SLL18

By Léon Stynen

The SL58 chair was designed in 1958 by Léon Stynen for the World Expo in Brussels. In 2016 Bulo reissued the chair in close collaboration with the Stynen family while staying true to the original design. The chair is available in various models and colors.

About the designer
LÉON STYNEN

Léon Stynen (1899–1990) was a Belgian architect. His work spans more than half a century of Belgian architectural history, with many successful and multi-faceted projects. Amongst them the deSingel International Art Center in Antwerp.

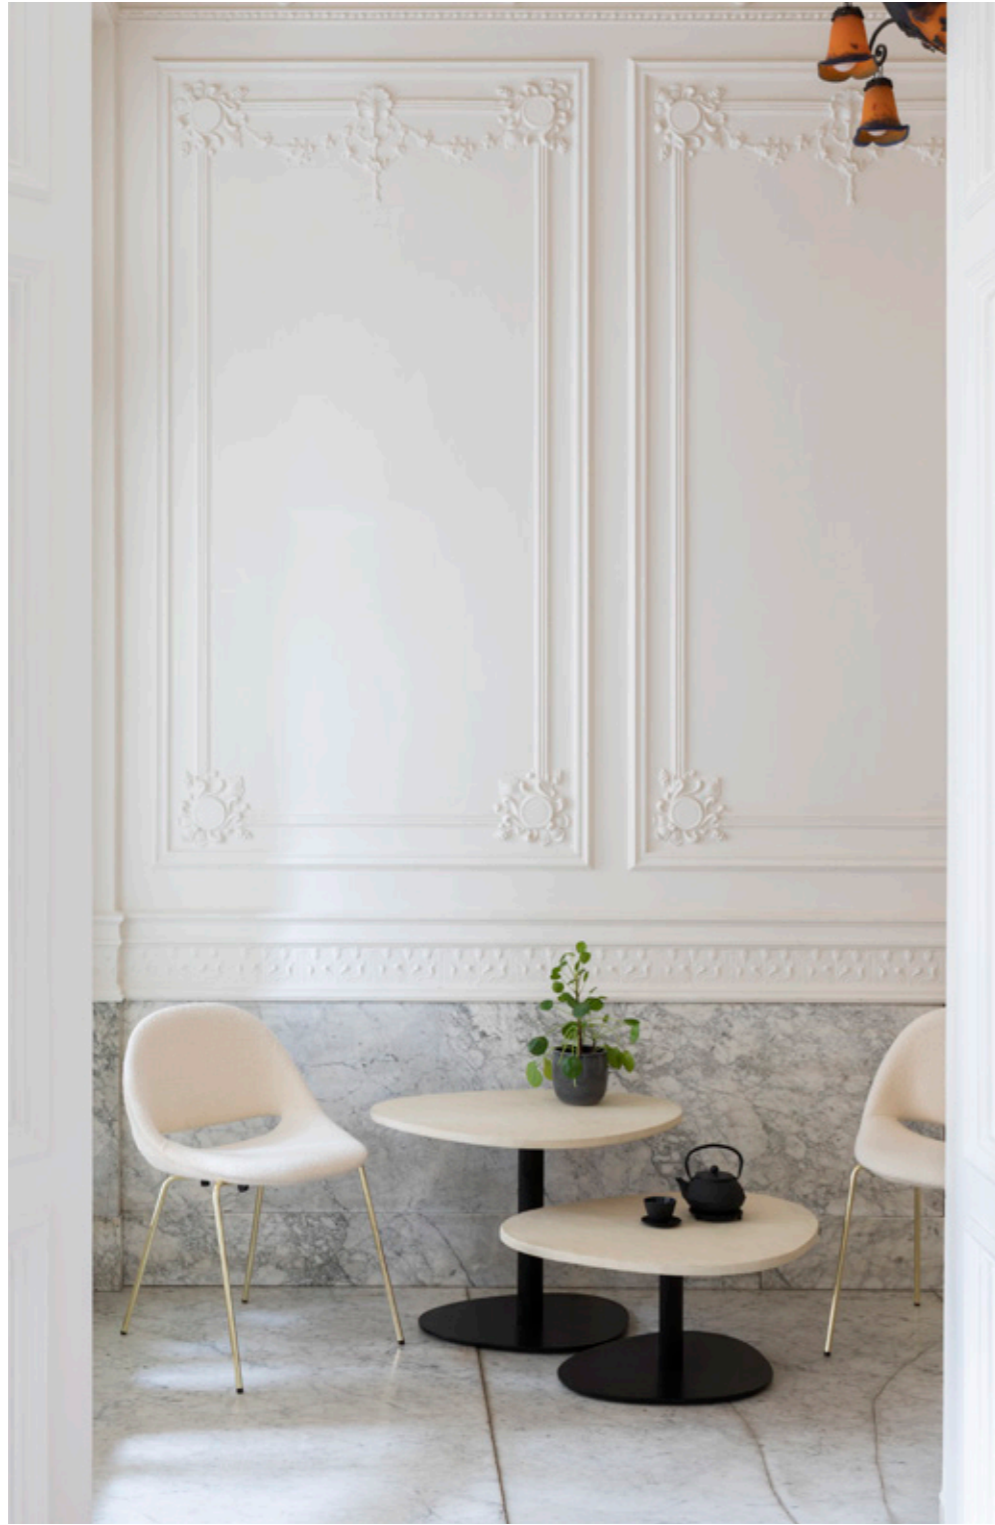

SENSES COLLECTION

by Nathalie Van Reeth

Senses resulted from a perfect storm of the interesting collaboration between designer, manufacturer, client and technology. Van Reeth's approach to create a more organic and humanistic environment to work in resulted in a perfect harmony of soft shapes, rich materials and cutting edge technology.

About the designer

NATHALIE VAN REETH

Nathalie Van Reeth is a Belgian interior architect. Her work is inspired by the perfection and refinement of form and function through made to measure creations that radiate harmony, intimacy and warmth.

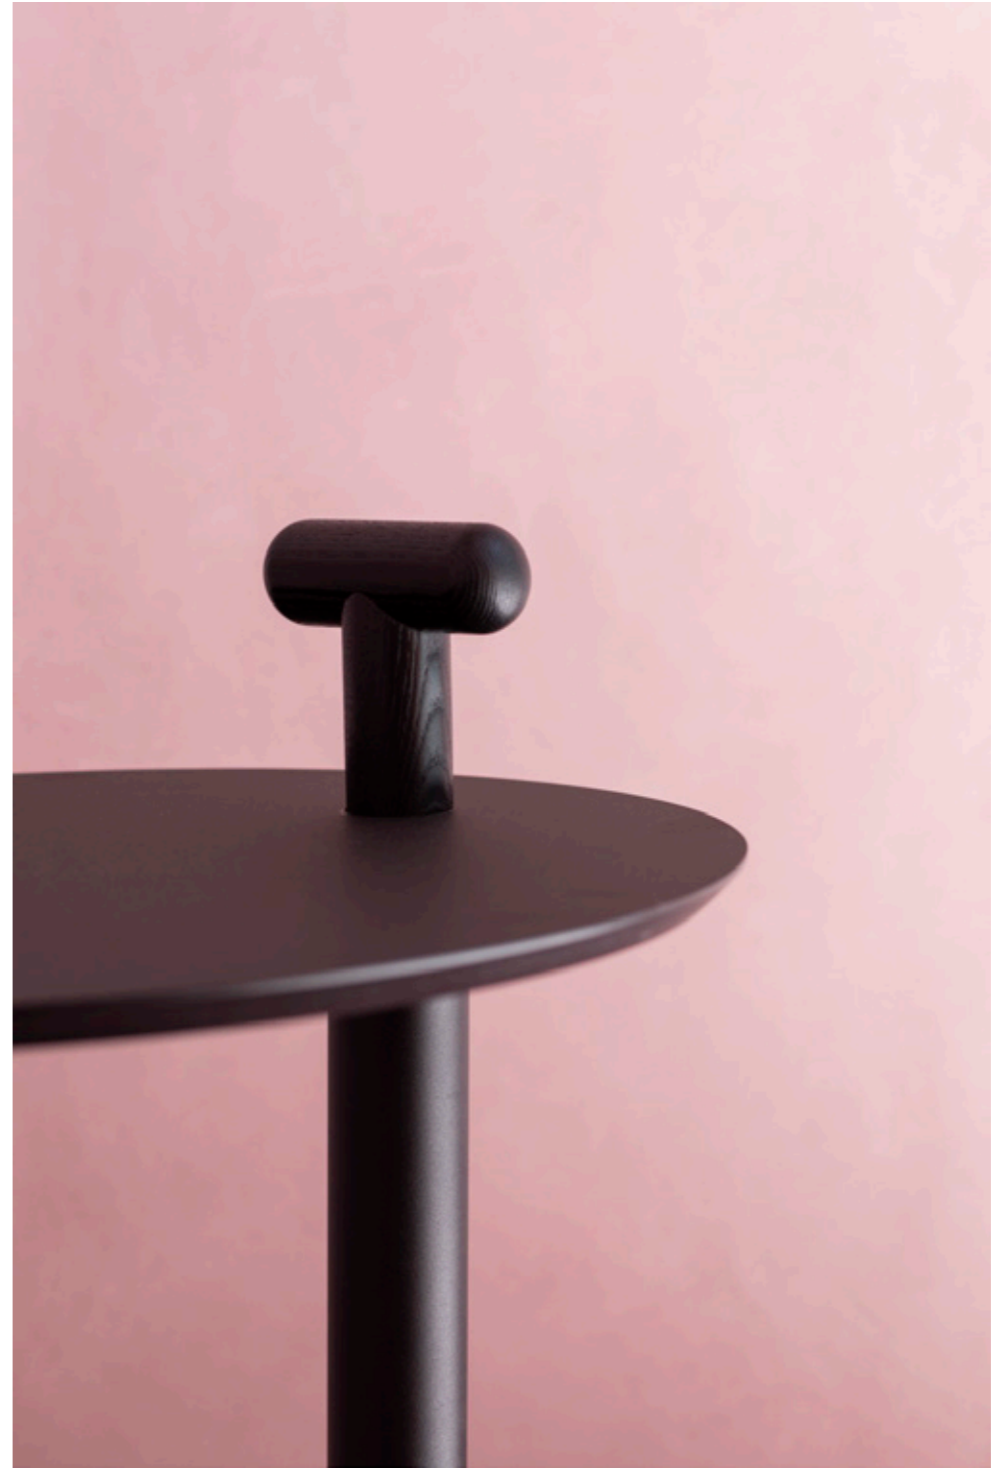

LUCCA & MONICA

by Gensler

Monica is quintessential Bulo. Both timeless and contemporary, she feels at home in different interiors. The lounge combines elements of classical woodworking and upholstery with state-of-the-art production techniques.

This chair goes well with Lucca, a small yet convenient side table. The intuitive wooden handle allows the user to adjust the table's height or to carry the table.

About the designer

THE GLOBAL ARCHITECTURE FIRM GENSLER

Gensler is a global architecture, design, and planning firm with 50 locations and more than 6,000 professionals networking across the world. Founded in 1965, the firm serves more than 3,500 active clients in virtually every industry. Gensler supports clients at every stage of the design cycle.

H2O

By Bataille & ibens

H2O is a Bulo icon designed by Bataille & ibens. A simple rectangular top on 4 cross-shaped legs. The table is multifunctional as work, meeting or dining table and fits in all interiors due to the wide range of finishes for both top and legs.

About the designers
BATAILLE & IBENS

Belgian architects Claire Bataille and Paul ibens studied and worked together. Consistently through their entire body of work, they have adopted the golden section, resulting in a minimalist visual language that continues to feel fresh and innovative even decades later.

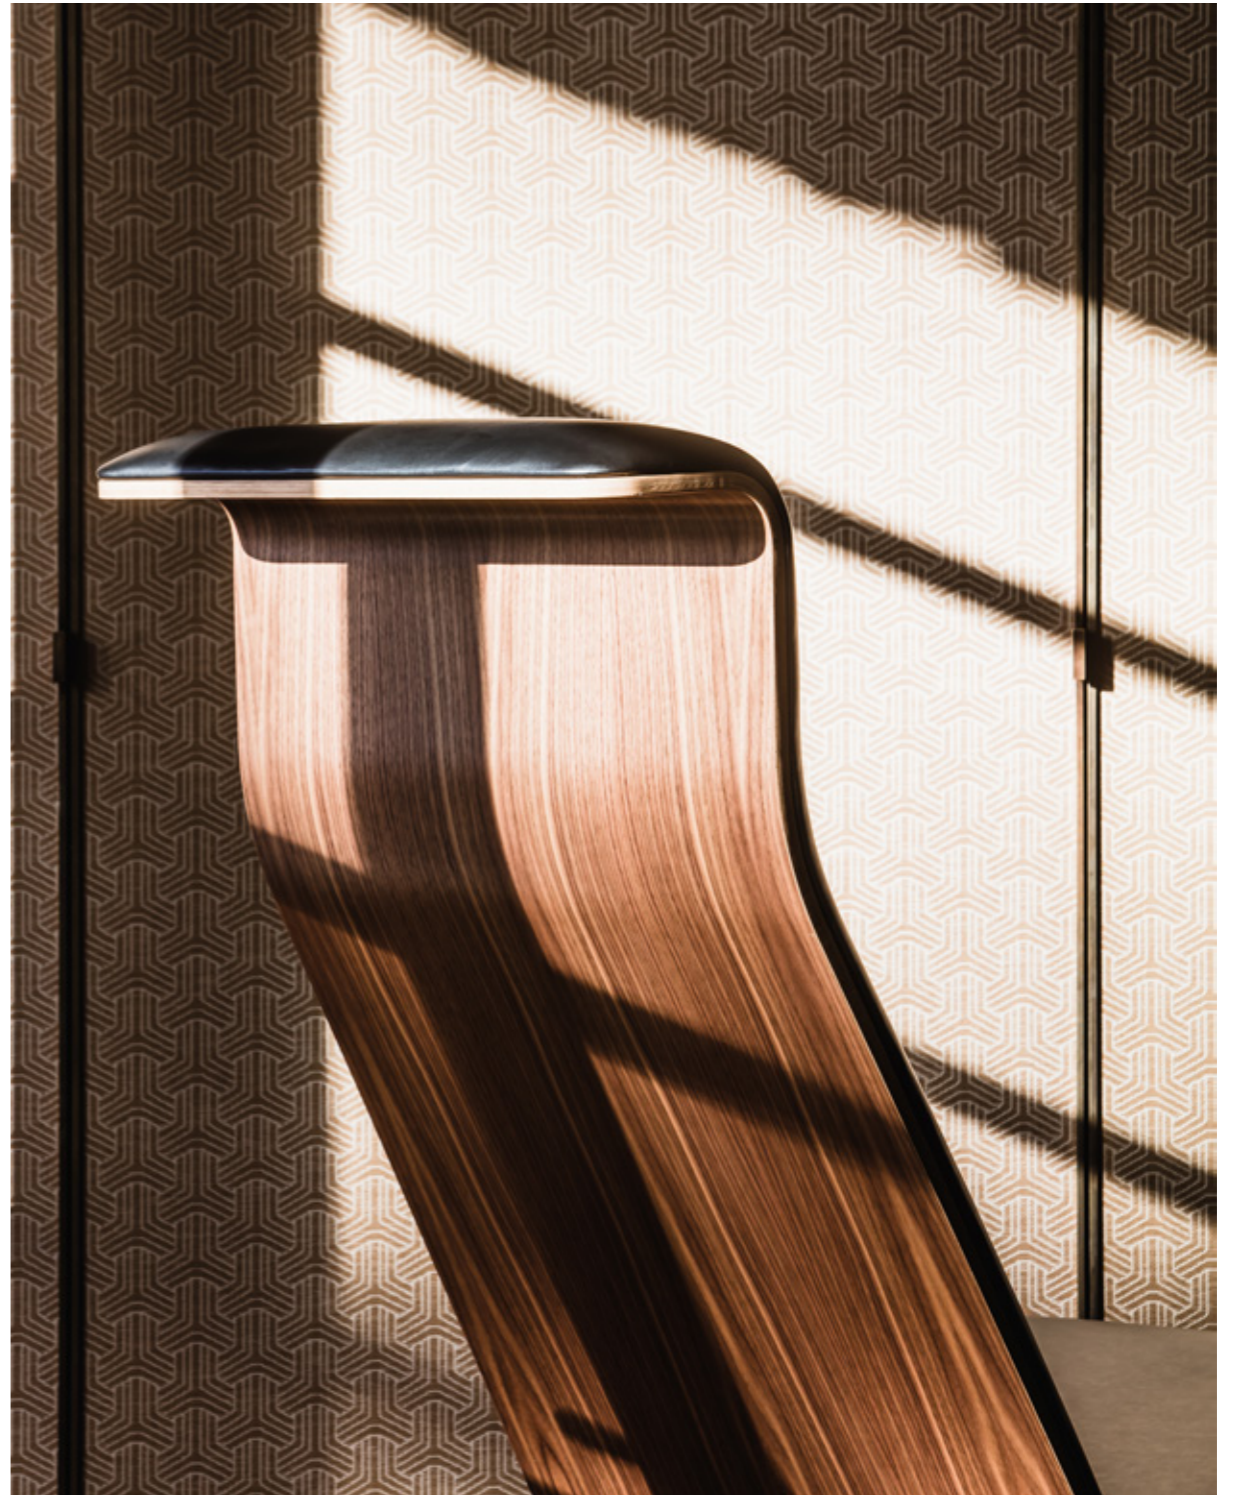

TAB LOUNGE

by Alain Berteau

The Tab Lounge was added to the Tab Chair collection in 2017. Maintaining the signature sleek profile and elegant detailing of the Tab Chair, whilst offering a more relaxed seating position. The Tab Lounge is available in the same upholstery finishes as the Tab Chair, allowing for various spaces to be furnished harmoniously.

About the designer ALAIN BERTEAU

Award-winning designer Alain Berteau works on both residential and industrial projects. His creations are simple, intense and constantly challenging the norm. He puts as much emphasis on the environment and surroundings of the projects as on the design of the product itself.

DAN RACK

By Bulo Design

The name DAN refers to Japanese martial arts and means "level". It refers to the ladder system of this durable and multifunctional collection that offers a combination of solid wood with industrial-inspired details for your office and in your home. The DAN modular system with industrial-inspired detailing can be turned into tables, desks, storage units and coffee tables.

About the designer BULO DESIGN

The Bulo Team consists of architects, interior designers, product developers and craftsmen. With passion and an eye for detail, we create products that make people find pleasure in their daily activities. Through exploring the unexplored we have created many innovative collections.

MONTADO COLLECTION

By Studio Corkinho

A series of beautiful objects realised in the noble material of cork. Bulo and Corkinho collaborated in the development of cork objects that help you organize your workplace at home or in the office. Innovation and age-old tradition go together.
